

Online Panel Talk 2022: What is the legal framework for autonomous driving in the EU?

We kindly invite you to our TRATON GROUP webcast on the legal regulations for autonomous driving in the EU market.

A particular focus will be on the questions of why autonomous driving is an important and innovative technology for the automotive industry, what the status quo of the legal regulations is in the different countries, and how the TRATON GROUP, especially Scania, positions itself in this regard. The discussion will be rounded off by a Q&A.

Wednesday, September 28, 2022, 09:30 - 10:15 CEST

Guest Speaker:

Thomas Doering, Vice President Strategy & Business Opportunities responsible for autonomous driving, TRATON SE

Guest Speaker:

Erik Dahlberg, Director Technical Affairs | Scania EU Affairs
